Yard waste plan meets opposition

By Bob Slate
 Staff writer

At least 100 Granite City residents who live near a proposed city-owned permanent yard waste drop-off site do not want the facility in their neighborhood.

Those objecting to the proposal, most of whom live in or near the 2400 block of Center Street, have circulated petitions opposing the plan.

A public hearing on the proposal to establish a permanent yard waste drop-off site on five acres of vacant land off of 25th Street, between Center Street and the railroad tracks, was held Aug. 22 at City Hall. No objectors were present at the hearing.

But petitions containing exactly 100 signatures of persons opposing the plan were placed in the hearing record Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. William Free, of the 800 block of 24th Street.

A letter from the Frees — also made a part of the record — states that they received a letter from Street Superintendent Jerry Lakin May 20 notifying them that there would be a hearing on the leaf transfer station proposal "no sooner than 90 days nor later than 120 days" from the letter's receipt, and that there would be a notice in the Granite City Press-Record or Journal specifying the exact date, time and place of the hearing.

Norma Free said that she and her husband were out of town when the notice appeared in the newspaper and thus did not know about or attend the hearing. She said that she and other residents expected another letter prior to the hearing notifying them of the exact date and time.

Although at least three articles appeared in the newspaper prior to the hearing, Norma Free said she did not read them.

"There are a lot of people out here who don't want this," she said.

Another resident of the area claimed that he did not receive any notification of the hearing, although the hearing record contains a receipt indicating the resident was notified by certified mail.

Told of the apparent opposition to the proposal,

Lakin said it is unfortunate that a few residents could ruin the plan, which is designed to benefit all city residents.

Lakin proposed the facility, where residents could drop off leaves, grass clippings and mulch, because burning yard waste is prohibited in the city and because trash haulers charge a fee to get rid of yard waste.

"If the city doesn't provide the service, then it is going to be the residents' responsibility," Lakin said. "We are just trying to save the residents some money and make it more convenient."

At the hearing Aug. 22, several experts testified that the proposed drop-off site

Preserving families

And Society works with children, parents

By Scott Cousins
 Staff writer

When she started working for the Children's Home and Aid Society of Illinois three years ago, Nicole Zacha thought she would be spending all her time working with clients.

Today, she still sees a few clients, but most of her time is spent administering the agency's youth service, transitional youth service and pregnancy and early parenting programs.

"I love working with the families, and I always thought that would be my focus," she said. "I never saw myself in an administrative position. But since I've been promoted I've enjoyed working with my team."

Zacha, of Collinsville, has been with the nonprofit agency for about three years and a supervisor for two. She started working there after receiving her master's degree from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

"I'm a youngster," she said. "I'm one of the youngest supervisors here and I get a lot of (trouble) about that."

She said all three of the programs she supervises are "kind of combined into one

Transit district moves on plans for garage

By Scott Cousins
 Staff writer

The Madison County Transit District board approved a resolution to go ahead with plans for the engineering, design and construction of a $5 million garage for the district's fixed-route buses.

The board also approved negotiating the purchase of property in the 700 block of Chain of Rocks Road. The property would initially provide construction access to the new garage, which would be located on Transit District property across from the main office on Transit Way in Pontoon Beach. Later, it would serve as another entrance to the transit district property.

Transit District Manager Jerry Kane said the garage is in the preliminary design phase, and he said they hope to have it in place by October 1997 at a cost not to exceed $5 million. "We've done a lot of work to make sure it's feasible," Kane said.

He added that the district's original building was not designed to handle the number or type of vehicles now used

Public meeting Monday

Railroad crossing problem to be discussed

By Bob Slate
 Staff writer

Granite City residents have had to put up with blocked railroad crossings for most of the city's 100 years.

After all, the city's industries rely heavily on railroads to transport materials in and out of town. There are only two routes into or out of the city that do not require crossing railroad tracks — Illinois 203 from Interstate 270; and Rock Road via the 19th Street overpass.

Waiting for trains to clear railroad crossings has become a way of life for those who live and work in the city, but two Democratic state representatives have vowed to try to change that.

"There is only one overpass in and out of the city," said State Rep. Steve Davis of the 11th District. "I have had complaints that people have had to wait up to 45 minutes for a train to pass."

Davis and State Rep. Tom Holbrook, of the 113th District, will host a forum at 6 p.m. Monday in the Granite City Township Hall, 2060 Delmar Ave., to discuss the problems associated with railroad crossings in Granite City.

"Both of us receive a number of calls each week about crossing problems: whether it is a particular track where they have to wait longer than 15 minutes for a train or a track that is tearing up their cars," Holbrook said. "We want to address these problems."

Representatives of the Illinois Department of Transportation, the Illinois Commerce Commission and various railroad lobbying organizations have been invited to attend the forum.

The agenda calls for a few brief introductions followed by constituent questions and comments. Davis and Holbrook encouraged everyone in the area who has had a problem with railroad crossings — or who is interested in the topic in general — to attend.

"We hope to have all the players who can do something about these problems in attendance. This is an opportunity for people to get out and express their frustrations and maybe we can

Teens arrested for drug usage

Granite City police are targeting teen-age drug users on their way to and from school.

The department's two-man undercover narcotics unit arrested four teens Friday at Granite City High School students and one student who attends Coordinat-ed Youth's alternative school — on their way to school for possession of marijuana.

"We will continue to do surveillance around the high school before, during and after school as we continue to attempt to curb drug use at school," Police Chief Dave Ruebhausen said.

On Friday, the plain-clothes officers monitored students and vehicles around the Wilson Park area and along Madison Avenue.

The four teens arrested were charged with misdemeanor possession of cannabis.

Last year, police and school officials stepped up enforcement of drug laws at GCHS — as well as Coolidge and Grigsby middle schools — by inspecting lockers with a narcotics-sniffing K-9.

That program is expected to be repeated periodically.

ONE LESS THING TO WORRY ABOUT.

THE VOICE BOX:

Are you skittish about flying since the tragedy of TWA Flight 800?

By SHIRLEY VALENCIA

Juan Jose Ortiz, Granite City
"No, I really don't think about it. I don't fly very much anyway. A person is more likely to have an automobile tragedy."

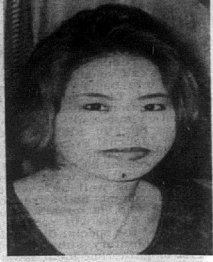

Murphy Tran, Granite City
"Since the tragedy of Flight 800, I try to limit my flying. I only fly if I have to or in case of an emergency."

Jenny Nguyen, Granite City
"At first I was scared, but I try to forget the tragedy. If I'm afraid, I can't go anywhere."

Shenita Crawford, Madison
"I don't like flying anyway. Flight 800 was so very sad."

Carla Silas, Madison
"I don't fly, but this has put fear in me, and I don't ever want to fly. I hope they find the cause of the incident."

Look at other options, religious official told

Venice rejects request from ministries group

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

A local man seeking a place to hold religious meetings was told he should look at other options before trying to use the Venice Senior Center.

At Tuesday's city council meeting city officials told Cameron Latham he should try to find meeting space with the park district library or area churches for his group — Streams in the Desert Outreach Ministries.

City officials expressed concerns ranging from separation of church and state issues to the fact that a church is already using the building for Sunday morning services.

Latham said his group — a recently formed non-profit religious organization — has been meeting in local houses. He asked that the group be allowed to meet in the center on Sunday and Tuesday evenings.

"Because we have just started and we are a non-profit organization, we cannot afford a building and utilities at this time," he said.

"We have been meeting from house to house twice weekly, but we don't have enough room to meet in homes anymore."

Hesaid the group is trying to remodel a building in West Madison, but that would not be ready for at least three or four months.

After Latham spoke to the council, City Attorney Casper Nghohossian said allowing the group to use the center would probably be a violation of separation of church and state provisions in both the U.S. and Illinois constitutions.

"The federal and state constitutions both have strict regulations about encouraging religion," he said. Discussion lasted for some time.

Aldermen Victor Valentine and Ruby Johnson said they had no problem with the group using the facility, but Valentine said Latham should consider another location.

He also asked if the organization was a church. Latham said it is an "outreach mission."

Johnson criticized Nghohossian, saying he should have spoken up when the first church started using the center almost a year ago.

"Don't throw the law in," she said. "The law should have come up then."

Nghohossian said he didn't know the church was using the center.

Mayor Tyrone Echols also said the church is renting the center, and has been doing so since their own building was damaged in a fire.

However, he said that had been some time ago and the church should be getting out of the center.

"We should have put some kind of time restraints on them," he said. "If somebody asked how long they will be there, nobody knows, and we should know."

"That building was not put there for church services," he added.

Ten are ticketed on bridge

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

In a sign that conditions on the McKinley Bridge have improved, police on Wednesday ticketed 10 drivers for speeding.

One driver was allegedly going 50 in a 30-mile-per-hour zone.

In July workers finished a $7.2 million renovation that included new guard rails and deck for most of the bridge. Bridge Consultant Tom Fields said the speeders are an "unintended consequence" of the smoother bridge surface.

Venice police also arrested three people on outstanding warrants in separate incidents early Friday morning.

Larion J. Davis, 21, of Brooklyn was arrested in the 1200 block of Oriole. He was wanted for failure to appear for driving with a suspended license and resisting a peace officer.

James B. Ponder, 31, of the 2100 block of Cleveland in Granite City, was arrested for failure to appear on a charge of domestic battery.

Steven E. Morgan, 24, of the 2000 block of Sixth Street in Madison, was arrested on outstanding warrants for escape and disobeying a lawful command.

'Press Club' and tote offered to subscribers

A canvas tote bag is just one of the items Journal readers can receive as part of the paper's fall voluntary subscription drive.

The tote bag features a graphic representation of St. Louis and many of the area's popular attractions. Readers who send in a one-year voluntary subscription of $19.50 will receive the canvas bag. In addition, they will be enrolled in the "Journal Press Club."

Readers in the club receive a Journal Press Card good for 20 minutes of free long-distance telephone service to anywhere in the continental U.S., as well as several discounts from local merchants and attractions.

Those who opt for a six-month voluntary subscription of $10 will receive the Journal Press Card and the special discounts.

The voluntary subscriptions help offset the cost of gathering local news and sports information for the 41 Journals in the metropolitan area that are published every week.

Readers who opt for a one-year subscription will receive this tote bag.

The program will be presented by Mary Lou Garbe, Extension Educator, Family Life. There is no charge, although pre-registration is requested by calling 692-7700.

Woolworth's building demolition to begin

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

Demolition of the old Woolworth's building at the corner of Edison and 19th Street should start within the next two weeks.

Madison County Transit District Manager Jerry Kane said Thursday that the state is expected to give final approval to begin demolition and construction of a new Park-n-Ride lot at the site, across from the Granite City Transfer Center.

He said final approval of the contract was held up because a subcontractor didn't finish all the necessary paperwork.

"It looks like in the next two weeks there will be a change in appearance at that site," Kane said.

The demolition and construction cost is about $170,000. The transit district purchased the property last September for $80,000.

The project is paid for with Congestion Management Air Quality Funds.

In other business the board approved a resolution authorizing the district to participate in the Illinois Public Treasurer's Investment Pool.

The resolution allows the state to deposit funds for the transit district directly. Kane said the measure means the district will receive several thousand dollars in additional interest income.

In another matter, Tom Sturgess of Bi-State Development Agency said bus and Metro Link ridership for the St. Louis Rams games is up slightly from last year.

'It looks like in the next two weeks there will be a change in appearance at that site.'

— Jerry Kane
Transit manager

He said ridership that for the Sept. 1 game against the Cincinnati Bengals the total ridership was 28,602. Of that, 22,320 rode Metro Link. Last year's ridership was about 25,000.

"We carried quite a few more on the express buses this year," Sturgess said.

For the two pre-season games, he said the average ridership was 25,470 and those figures were close to last year's averages.

"We carried about a third of the people (attending football games) last year," he said.

For Madison County residents going to the remaining seven Rams games, Bi-State and the transit district are offering the Rams Express. The Alton route goes from Alton Square, the Alton Holiday Inn, Eastgate Plaza in East Alton, Wood River, and the Granite City Transfer Center.

The Edwardsville route goes from Second and High streets, the Maryville Illinois Department of Transportation Park-n-Ride lot, and the Gateway Convention Center.

The Highland route hits the Highland, St. Jacob and Troy Park-n-Ride lots.

Bus route changes set

Minor adjustments on two bus routes serving Madison County are being made as part of service improvements for commuters.

To accommodate the schedule of STU-Edwardsville, changes to the #503 Collinsville-Edwardsville are now effective. One morning and one evening trip via I-255/270 has also been restored for the school year. The #503 route has been changed to provide additional weekday service to Tower Lake apartments.

In addition, effective Aug. 26, the #552X Highland-Troy Express will be shortened and re-routed to take advantage of a new IDOT park-ride lot on Hwy 40, 1.2 miles east of Highland Road. The portion of the current route east of Highland Road and Hwy 40 will be deleted.

For additional information on Madison County Transit service, call Bi-State Transit Information at 271-2345.

by the district.

"The district is acquiring 41 new buses, and has provided fixed route service buses to the district," he said. "This facility that we're in today was designed as a para-transit facility."

He said that at the time the original building was built in 1966 the district was using 26 van-sized vehicles to provide door-to-door service. Today, the district operates not only the door-to-door service but also runs fixed routes using larger vehicles.

"It's really not designed to house as many buses as we're getting," he said of the existing facility.

He said that when the building was completed, the fixed route buses will be housed and maintained there, while the door-to-door service will stay at the existing facility.

He said the district has not picked an operator for the new garage.

Kane said the district is seeking to acquire the property on Chain of Rocks Road to allow better access to both the proposed and existing buildings.

Without the access, he said, heavy trucks during construction would damage Transit Way.

"There's a lot of dirt work to be done," he said.

Kane also said it would give the district an alternative access route.

"It would also give us a permanent access to the site in addition to Transit Way," Kane said. "The problem we have today is if we work on Transit Way there is no other way in or out."

Families

parents see that (DCFS) as the answer, but usually what happens is the kids behavior deteriorates and things get worse."

The youth services program is a family preservation program.

"We work with kids between 11 and 17 who are at risk of not being able to live at home anymore," she said. "Either they run away or refuse to go home, or they've been sort of naughty and their parents don't want them at home anymore."

She supervises a team of 10 workers.

"They go out after hours to police stations and do family crisis intervention and try to get the kids back home," she said. "If they can't go home we try to get them with a friend or relative, and if that's not an option then we have emergency foster placement we can utilize."

The next day, a full time counselor is assigned to the family.

She said the program is "fairly successful" and in the last six months only a few kids have had to be referred to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services.

"The agency contracts with us to do what we do to get kids out of their foster care system," she said. "A lot of between the cracks," she said. "I think a kid's behavior goes worse when they go into foster care."

She said kids today are doing things "far more dangerous" than before.

"We have kids who are gang involved, we have kids who are using and abusing drugs and alcohol on a fairly regular basis, we have kids who are having unprotected sex," she said. "If we can do anything to educate them and to help them make good decisions, then maybe it will prevent some harm in the future."

"Over the years we've seen so many kids with such low self-esteem who don't have any goals," she said. "They don't really see any hope for their future a lot of the time."

"The goals of that program are to prevent child abuse and multiple pregnancies, so we work with them on birth control to try to keep them from happening again, make sure they get prenatal care they need, or get to WIC, or whatever they need to do," Zacha said.

"I think the programs are important because with the families we serve, it would be very easy for them to fall would not have an adverse impact on the value of nearby property."

Lakin said that no residential garbage or hazardous waste would be allowed at the site, and that waste would be removed on a daily basis. A screened fence, trees and earthen berms are planned to improve the aesthetics of the facility and the chemicals are to be used to eliminate odor, Lakin said.

The plan calls for a top grinder at the facility, which will mulch yard waste. Composting will be done at another site, Lakin said.

Residents may still provide input into the plan. A 30-day public comment period continues until Sept. 20.

Written comments should be submitted to City Clerk Judy Whitaker in City Hall.

The City Council will make a decision on the plan after the comment period closes.

Since taking office three and a half years ago, Mayor Ron Selph has been lobbying the ICC to force railroad companies to upgrade crossings in the city. As a direct result of that lobbying, the ICC has ordered railroad companies to improve about a dozen crossings in the city.

"We've been able to accomplish a great deal. In fact, negotiations are continuing with a couple of railroad companies right now," Selph said. "But we welcome any assistance we can get in addressing these problems."

Davis and Holbrook said they would like to make the forum an annual event, addressing different issues each meeting.

"If this first forum is successful, Steve and I are both interested in making this an ongoing event in the Granite City area, each one addressing a new issue," Holbrook said.

Tips on enjoying the beauty of Chrysanthemums from the experts at FRANK'S®

NURSERY & CRAFTS

Where Beautiful Things Begin

Chrysanthemums have long been the main attraction in gardens throughout the country. Their brilliance and beauty are tough acts to follow, and they can bring the gardening season to a close like nothing else.

Today's new hybrid varieties are noted for both early bloom and winter hardiness. Their bloom season has been greatly increased. Even people in northern climates can enjoy the beauty of mums.

Aside from the new varieties just mentioned, mums have been around for some time, going all the way back to around 550 B.C. Most of the mum species are native to China, Japan or Europe.

The mum is a genus of annual and perennial herbs belonging to the Aster family. Some species, such as pyrethrum and shasta daisy, bear ornamental flowers even during the summer months. The garden mum is the showiest of all fall blossoms, with its pleasant musk-scented flowers.

Here are some tips to help you enjoy the beauty of mums in your garden.

Mums have hearty appetites, and require plenty of food to attain maximum development. Liberal quantities of manure or compost should be added before planting.

In sunny, well-drained locations, individual specimens set at 2-foot intervals become masses of bloom when little else remains, since mums are late-season bloomers. They're also able to withstand light frosts. The taller varieties can enhance garden borders quite well, while the low growers are fine as edging, in urns and tubs, rock gardens or foundation plantings next to evergreens.

Most taller mums are superb for cutting. Their flowers will last two or three weeks in water, but the leaves should be removed from the submerged portion of the stem.

Mums are also excellent when arranged with fall foliage or berried branches.

Thousands of mum cultivars have been developed, and classification of the many types is based mainly on flower form and growth habit. Here are a few.

Cushion: The dwarf hardy spreading type. Decorative: The most common garden variety. Petals are regularly or irregularly reflexed. The flowers are an inch and a half to several inches across, with the petals varying in length.

Pom-pom: The flowers are usually spherical and not over 4 inches across. Some have curved petals in the center of the flower head. Spoon: The disk florets (those that form the central "eye") are rather flat, while the ray florets (those that form the "petals") are regularly arranged and spoon-shaped.

Single- and Daisy-Flowered: The disk florets form a daisy-like "eye" in the center, while the ray or petal-like florets are arranged in not more than five rows.

Great as they are, mums aren't perfect, but what is? Like any other plant, diseases can strike, especially when conditions are crowded and/or the plant is starved.

Try to provide plenty of room for your plants, along with good air circulation and adequate sunlight. And, of course, don't forget to feed them.

She will head the annual drive next year.

Brown will lead a team of volunteers concentrating their energies on contacting small businesses in the industrial sector. Brown is the city's economic development director. He holds a juris doctorate from St. Louis University. In 1983, he established a public relations and marketing firm that he still runs with his wife, Rosemarie.

"As economic development director it is my job to 'sell' our community," Brown said. "The quality network of health and human service agencies made possible through the annual United Way fund drive, makes my job easier."

DuVall, operations officer for Central Bank's Granite City

Banking Centers, will lead a team of community volunteers whose task is to recruit new contributors to the United Way campaign.

DuVall has been a Granite City resident for 30 years. She received her general banking diploma from the American Institute of Banking and has been with Central Bank for 18 years. She has two sons, Bob and Neil, and a granddaughter, Kaylee.

DuVall is an active member of the community. She is a member of the board of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, serving as co-chairman of Community Pride and Chamber Play Day committees. She is also a member of the Granite City Partnership for Education.

"I have personally seen how the United Way aids people in our community and I wanted to do my part," DuVall said. Hudzik has accepted the responsibility of establishing a team of volunteers to contact small businesses in the retail and service sector. Hudzik is vice president of Magna Trust Co. He has been with Magna in the banking and trust areas since 1982. Prior to taking a position with Magna, Hudzik was comptroller in the city of Madison. He holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Illinois and is a Madison High School graduate.

"The vital services provided by United Way funded agencies touch the lives of so many individuals in our community. Many of these people would not have access to these services if not for the support of the United Way," said Hudzik, who served as campaign chairman in 1992.

Chip King is a chiropractor in Granite City. He chaired the "Small Business Blitz" conducted Aug. 22.

"It is a privilege to be part of a team that identifies a need within our community and then focuses on the best way to address that need," King said.

King holds a doctor of chiropractic degree from Logan College and a bachelor of science degree in biology from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. King and his wife Kim live in Granite City with their three children Amy, Charlie and Tom.

A State Farm agent, Morgan led the "Professional Blitz" conducted Aug. 14. He has been a part of the community since 1971. He holds a bachelor of arts degree in business from SIUE. His wife Mary teaches at Worthen Elementary School. They have two children, Krista and John.

Rounding out the campaign cabinet is Papa, an attorney. He and his team will be contacting other area lawyers during the campaign.

Papa is a graduate of Notre Dame University and holds a juris doctorate degree from the University of Illinois School of Law. In addition to his private practice, he has been the attorney for Madison District No. 15 and Brooklyn School District No. 188 for more than 10 years.

Irwin-Scott Chapel set in Glen Carbon

Construction began last week on a new funeral home in Glen Carbon. Being built by Irwin-Scott Chapel Inc., it will be located on Glen Crossing Road at Illinois 159 in Glen Carbon. Owners of the funeral home said it will be the first one in Glen Carbon and is designed to serve that village as well as Edwardsville, Collinsville, Maryville, Troy and surrounding communities.

The owners are Randall and Linda Irwin and Mark and Andrea Scott, families now associated with two Irwin Chapels in Granite City.

They said the new funeral home, with more than 10,000 square feet of space planned, will be the largest independently- and locally-owned funeral home in the metro east.

It will be able to accommodate five visitations at one time and will have separate lounge areas for smokers, children and non-smoking guests. A state-of-the-art sound system is planned, as well as a 20-foot-high barrel ceiling entrance leading to a marble fireplace in the spacious reception area.

The Glen Carbon property was acquired in April 1995 and Irwin-Scott was incorporated in July of that year.

The Bank of Edwardsville provided financing. Dan Hurford Architects Inc. designed the facility and Miller & Maack is the general contractor.

Merna Davis of Interpretations Interior Design is handling the decorations.

A spring 1997 opening is planned.

Partners hit $2 million mark in real estate sales

The partnership of Chris Miller and Judine Lux, Realtor associates of CVM Realty, has reached the $2 million mark in production.

Individually, they are also recognized for achieving $1 million in personal production. They joined CVM Realty in April of this year. Miller and Lux belong to the Granite City Board of Realtors and the Southwestern Illinois Regional Multiple Listing Service.

In 1993, the Illinois Association of Realtors awarded Miller with the Bronze ($1 million) Award. In 1994, she also received the Bronze Award. In 1995, the Illinois Association of Realtors presented her with the Bronze and Silver ($2 million) awards. Miller began her real estate career in 1989.

Miller is a member of Holy Family Parish, past co-chairperson of Holy Family Parent-Student Association and member of Marquette Catholic High School Board and the fund-raising committee for the Hospice of Madison County. She and her husband, Jim, have three children, Jim, Mark and Jennifer.

Lux received the Illinois Association of Realtors' Bronze Award in 1993, 1994 and 1995. In 1995, she was presented the Silver Award for personal production by the association. She has been a licensed Realtor since 1979.

She is a member of Holy Family Church and past co-chairperson and treasurer of Holy Family PSA. She and her children, Ryan and Kristen, are lifelong residents of Granite City.

The Miller-Lux partnership has more than $12 million in closed transactions within the past five years.

The initials CVM stand for computerized visual marketing. This is an exciting, innovative and effective concept which benefits both buyers and sellers. When an owner lists their property with CVM, it is video taped. This allows a prospective buyer to preview property in the comfort of CVM's modern offices and then arrange a personal tour of the property. This video marketing concept accommodates the busy schedules of both buyers and sellers.

CVM Realty, located at 1735 Pontoon Road, has the largest staff of full-time Realtors in Granite City. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.; and Sunday, noon to 4 p.m.

Shuttle service planned for 2 community events

By Scott Cousins
 Staff writer

The Madison County Transit District will again be providing shuttle service for Collinsville's 13th annual Italian Fest on Sept. 20-21 and Cahokia Mounds' Heritage America on Sept. 28-29.

At Thursday's meeting the board approved providing the service for the events, which it provides annually.

The two-day Italian Fest celebrates the city's Italian roots. Italian food, games, music and a variety of ethnic competitions, including a grape stomp, bocce ball tournament and recipe contest will be featured.

Shuttles are expected to run between Main and Seminary and the parking lot at Collinsville North Junior High School located on Vandavia. Shuttles will run every 20 to 30 minutes from 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. Friday, Sept. 20, and from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 21.

Heritage America is Cahokia Mounds' largest annual special event. This Native American festival brings Indians from across the country to Cahokia Mounds to perform traditional dance, music, crafts, games, cooking and more.

Centennial UPDATE

PROGRESS THROUGH HERITAGE

One of Granite City's first motorized fire engines, the National City Engine and an antique hook and ladder as well as more modern engines, a city fire truck, classic cars and a craft show will be featured among many other activities at the Granite City Centennial Grand Finale on Saturday, Oct. 5.

Firefighter buffs will enjoy the antique fire engines owned by Larry Zotti of Granite City. The 1922 American LaFrance pumper features fancy scrollwork and gold leaf. Zotti, a salesman for Vesco Distribution, said the truck was purchased by Granite City in 1922 and sold in 1964 to Illinois State University, Bloomington. Zotti looked for it for years, finally finding it in 1987. He brought it home in boxes and pieces and painstakingly restored the machine to its original glory.

As a boy, Zotti played on the fire engine at the city's original fire station at 19th and State streets, where he now stores the engine with three other fire engines he owns. The pumper was the first piece of equipment purchased when the Fire Department was organized as a paid department. The volunteer force, which operated from 1896 to 1922, had used horse-drawn equipment and a motorized unit purchased in 1913.

The Granite City Fire Department will have one of its current engines on display so children can get a first-hand look and maybe even have a picture taken with a Granite City firefighter.

Fire safety rules are reinforced through the smoke house operated by the department. The two-story house has windows, stairs and a porch with an escape ladder. During the school year, the department uses it to educate kindergarten through fourth-grade students, said Assistant Chief Jim Brawley. A smoke machine puts out a thick non-toxic smoke and firefighters teach people to feel around a room, to stay close to the ground and to feel the temperature of a door before opening it. The smoke house demonstration will be held several times throughout the day.

This daylong event will also showcase the talented crafters of this area. Some of the crafts will include a wide range of wood crafts, hand-woven baskets, tote painting, home-baked goods and fiber art. The craft show will be housed in the old pro shop. Visitors can see clothes being made on a knitting machine. A limited number of spaces are still available and may be reserved by calling Sue Champion at 451-1212.

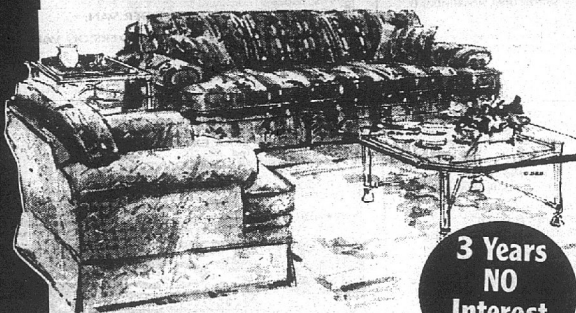

Corvette fans won't want to miss the show from 5 to 9 p.m. Lookingglass Corvette Club, sponsor of the show, has appeared in national publications including Vette Vues Magazine, Corvette Fever and Keen's Truck. The 20-year-old club has 85 members, many of whom have achieved distinctions such as Bloomington Gold certification and National Corvette Restorers Society top flight awards.

Corvette owners who wish to exhibit may contact Bill Hoppe, (618) 897-8777, or Dennis Hardesty, (618) 386-7823, for details. Exhibitors will receive a dash plaque.

The Grand Finale is being held at the U.S. Army Garrison, Charles Melvin Price Support Center, located at Illinois Route 3 and Niedringhaus Avenue in Granite City. Exhibit hours are 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

ENTERTAINMENT Sodality meets Aug. 27

Marilyn Schooley, president, called to order Aug. 27 the monthly meeting of St. Elizabeth's Sodality with 50 members present.

Reports were given by Berta Millanas, treasurer; Lillian Ropac, secretary; and the following committee chairmen: Delores Moseley, Jan Polach, Cleo Schnefke and Maggie Groboski.

Plans were made for a trip to the Admiral Sept. 19. Plans also were discussed for the upcoming 125-year celebration and the Christmas bazaar to be held in November.

The quilt of the month was won by Millanas. The Madonna was won by Sally Gracey. The attendance prize was won by Florence Moore. The 50/50 drawing was won by Doty Kelly.

Refreshments were served by Phyllis Brussati, Schnefke, Theresa Straubinger and Ann Miller.

The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 24, in the school cafeteria.

Advertorial

Thousands earn extra money by learning to prepare income taxes

Every year thousands of people learn income tax preparation from H&R Block, the No. 1 tax preparation firm in the world. Graduates of these courses can save money on their own tax returns as well as earn money preparing income tax returns for others. Many work for H&R Block.

The courses are convenient, with morning, afternoon, evening and weekend classes. The classes combine practical information and tax theory in a logical step-by-step method. As their knowledge and confidence increase, students learn to handle complex tax situations.

The tuition fee includes all books and supplies. Graduates receive a Certificate of Achievement and continuing education.

units (CEUS) *Qualified graduates may have the opportunity to interview with H&R Block, but are under no obligation to accept employment nor does graduation from the course guarantee offer of employment. If hired, graduates can work flexible hours in convenient locations.

For more information about career opportunities and course information, call for our free brochure.

Sunday, Sept. 8

Under the emotion-filled Cancer moon, you may find yourself contemplating the improvements you've tried to implement in the last few weeks. Now, you can incorporate changes as part of your emotional makeup. With Venus newly stationed in Leo, most people find it easier to forgive and forget. Allow yourself this luxury, and work toward a new level of accomplishment — free, unburdened and graceful.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Be completely sure where you stand in a love relationship now, when things are still negotiable. Issues of morality and ethics are topics of conversation among friends. Highlight a colleague's unique talent.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Financial rewards follow when you patiently put up with obstacles. Divide relationship problems into their lowest common denominator. A work partner shows an interest in non-business-related activities.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). A restless cycle ends — now, you know exactly what you want out of your lover. You will need to make a greater effort to preserve the feelings of close friends. Insurance and real estate prove to be sound investments.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Financial commitments beginning now are likely to pan out. You are most attracted to mysterious companions.

Reschedule a meeting for which you are not fully prepared. It's time to switch your focus from yourself to others.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Those who respect serve as models for future business dealings. A romance you believe is too good to be true is well deserved, so allow yourself to enjoy it. Your demands of a manufacturer or service person are met.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Sept. 8). A gathering in October helps you with those who can elevate your position at work. You rise to the occasion and reap the benefits by November. A creative endeavor proves to be worthwhile in December by paying off in money and recognition. You have dreams in common with a Pisces or Cancer who will be yours forever once you make a commitment.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Ideas for business or social success inspire you to advance with speed. Follow up on unanswered phone calls. You will be most productive when working alone. Shy individuals long for your affection.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23).

Your opinion is easily swayed, so it's best to keep it to yourself this afternoon. You'll find interesting dating possibilities by going through an old collection of phone numbers. Trust your instincts.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). An elite organization will support your political beliefs. Gift giving is an opportunity to let a friend know how truly important he or she is to you. Spend time being social with your family.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). A quick consultation with an informed family member is lucrative. Demand more respect from loved ones by ignoring anything less than what you deserve. Spend leisure time near a body of water.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). A call to a friend from the past makes you aware of how far you've come emotionally and intellectually. You unanimously protect family members. Be careful not to make promises in situations out of your control.

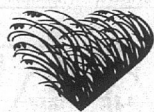

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Your partner accentuates your good characteristics, helping you get ahead on a community project. Your faith inspires a troubled pal to hang on through nasty weather. Give in to a case of wanderlust.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). It's time to take more creative control in projects with other people. A relationship issue is resolved when you accept your lover's shortcomings. A steady diet of praise gets you through a confidence slump.

Old Newsboys Day has been a St. Louis tradition since 1957 and now you can be a part of it.

For 39 years, volunteers have taken to the streets to sell these special Old Newsboys Day editions. Every penny raised is donated to children's charities in the St. Louis area. In fact, volunteers collected $182,000 for over 250 charities last year alone, bringing the total to over $5,000,000 since the Old Newsboys Day tradition began.

Now you and your school can join the ranks of numerous volunteers on Old Newsboys Day, Thursday, November 7th. You'll receive an Old Newsboys button and apron, as well as a bundle of valuable coupons just for helping out.

To sign up or for more information, please call our Old Newsboys Day Hotline at (314) 821-0211. It's that easy to take part in a great St. Louis tradition!

M-C to induct Freeburg's Pflasterer

It did not take the Aug. 18 death of Kent Pflasterer, 67, of Freeburg, to realize how good an athlete and baseball player he was.

Years ago in the St. Clair County men's league I had the misfortune of playing against him, but the good fortune of seeing one of Southwestern Illinois' best-ever infielders.

"How good was Kent Pflasterer?" On the County League level, many considered him the best second baseman ever. The fact is that whenever he played in the infield, he was an equally good hitter — something that helped him lead Freeburg to a men's league dynasty from 1958 through 1963.

"When you consider that we won six consecutive playoffs and a total of 10 of 12 possible championships, that was something," said Wayne Lanter, one of Pflasterer's Freeburg teammates.

Such achievements easily justify why Pflasterer was one of four men inducted into the Mon-Clair League Hall of Fame on Saturday, Nov. 2 at the Millstadt VFW. Also to be recognized are Tom Bergkoetter and Roy Mense of Libby and Rich Sauget of Sauget.

Signed by the New York Giants in 1948, Pflasterer was graduating from Freeburg High where he was an outstanding basketball and baseball player — Pflasterer hit 251 at Chantute, Kan., of the Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri League and was so impressive that some major league teams offered as much as $2,000 to purchase his contract.

A year later the Brooklyn Dodgers took an easier financial route by taking Pflasterer in the winter draft — a move that may have enhanced Kent's professional career, but also may have prevented his climb to the major leagues.

In the Dodgers' minor league system, Pflasterer became recognized as a steady, hard-working player who even overshadowed another young infielder, Mickey Mantle, in the K-O-M.

According to John Hall, editor of the KOM League Remembered, "Kent was the first guy that I spoke with when I started writing my book. We spoke on Memorial Day, 1994, and he said, 'I'll talk with you if you promise to tell the readers that I outlived Mantle that year.'"

Said Hall, "I told him that wouldn't be hard to do, for he had indeed done so (.314 to .318). Kent was my pick as the league's finest shortstop."

In one of his newsletters, Hall referred to Charlie Weber, also of Freeburg, who played along shortstop Mantle in 1949 at Independence, Kan.

"He would have given anything to have Kent at his side rather than Mickey," Hall said.

While Mantle zoomed to center field with the Yankees, Pflasterer gained recognition in 1953 when he led the Class A Western League with a .350 batting average. His statistics for third-place Pueblo, Colo., included 190 hits in 141 games, 94 runs scored, 27 doubles, seven triples, nine home runs and 80 runs batted in.

Achieving such numbers as a third baseman led to advancement as high as Mobile, Ala., of the Class AA Southern League in 1956. But ahead of Kent for the Dodgers were major leaguers with names like Gilliam, Reese and Robinson, while minor leaguers like Maury Wills and Charlie Neal also were starring.

"When they called up Neal, I think that was the end of the line for Kent," said Warren Titner, who played for Freeburg and will be a part of the M-C Hall of Fame recognition of Pflasterer.

Thus from being in the major league spring training camp in Vero Beach, Fla., where he often played pinch-hitter with the late Don Drysdale, (See ART, Page 38)

Panthers ride out storm, GCHS

Offense powers O'Fallon past Warriors

By Rob Raphael
Staff writer

When the lightning at Hagnauer Sports Complex stopped flashing, the O'Fallon Panthers had some fireworks of their own to perform.

O'Fallon got a pair of touchdowns each from Andre Ramsey and Ralph Holmes, leading the Panthers to a 36-0 win over host Granite City in a nonconference game Friday night.

On a stormy night in the Metro East, several games were canceled, but the Warriors and Panthers managed to play after a delay of 50 minutes.

Once the game did proceed, neither team seemed overly affected by the delay, although there were signs the teams were a bit out of synch. The Panthers went into halftime with a 15-0 lead.

"I'll tell you what, that delay didn't help," said O'Fallon coach Gary Bridell. "Our kids were up there with the cheerleaders and everything else, so it was hard to get their minds back on football. It didn't help much."

"We're glad we played, though."

"I don't think it really affected us that much," said Granite City coach Nick Petrillo. "As a matter of fact, I thought when we first came out that we were in a better rhythm. It's the same story as last week, though. We just weren't able to maintain, physically."

"Our kids play with a great deal of heart. We just need a little more quickness," Ramsey and Holmes combined for 218 yards on the ground for O'Fallon (2-0). Other than that, however, the Panthers were less than exhilarating. Still, the duo looked good in the backfield, a source of success over the years for the Panthers.

We do some things right. We had trouble getting our second team members in there," Bridell said. "We lost Marshall Goodwin, who we thought would be one of our best running backs, but yes, we still have capable players to bring into that position. We were happy."

Meanwhile, the Warriors (0-2) seemed to suffer from the same problem that plagued them against Cahokia in week one.

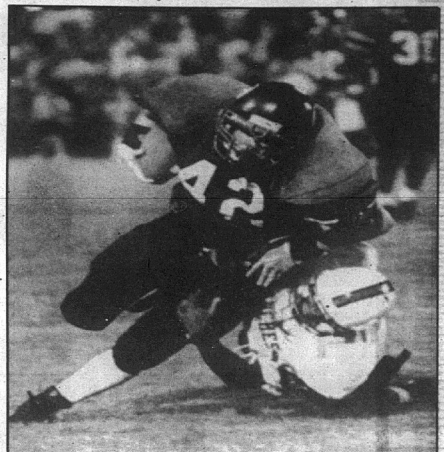

"Our kids, I don't know," Petrillo said. "We play a real fine first half, although we don't quite put everything together, but we seem like we're starting to come together."

"Our fullback, this is his fourth game ever, and our quarterback — we lost Kevin (Harris) last week with a broken shoulder. But Rocky (Smith) did a heck of a job. He just didn't get enough reps. It really threw the whole week out of whack."

Bridell was also concerned with the number of penalties. "The Lady Warriors (1-2) came out of the gate a bit rusty on Thursday, but got their act together in the second game and hung on for their first win of the year."

Penalties were terrible, and our passing game wasn't there, either," he said. "We had a lot of penalties late, but yes, we probably let them stay in the game with our mistakes in the first half."

Spikers rally past Alton

By Rob Raphael
Staff writer

The Granite City Lady Warriors recovered from a mediocre first game to rally past Alton 12-15, 15-2, 15-6 Thursday night in their home opener at a sultry Memorial Gymnasium.

The Lady Warriors (1-2) came out of the gate a bit rusty on Thursday, but got their act together in the second game and hung on for their first win of the year.

In their first match of the year Tuesday at Civic Memorial, the Lady Warriors dropped a three-game match. GCHS was scheduled to play Highland on Friday evening. Results were unavailable at press time.

GCHS coach Amy Cole was absent from Thursday's match, as she had another commitment. But assistant coaches Ruth Layton and Deb Germann helped the Lady Warriors find their game.

With the home opener, Layton said the girls may have been a little nervous during the first game.

"Somewhat," she said. "We were just getting our game together, but they definitely pulled together for the second and third game. We did very well those last two games. We played as a team."

Without a dominant hitter, the Lady Warriors will have to spread the offense throughout the team. That was the case on Thursday, as all nine players saw action and contributed.

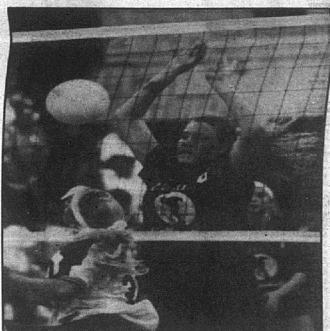

Stephanie Brandt saved most action at the net as she registered nine kills and three blocks. But Brandt also had seven digs in the back row, and the entire squad played well on defense.

Jenna Wright added six kills and four blocks, while Amy Tope slammed five kills and Kerry Lasiter added three.

Laurie Bohnenstiel had seven digs and a team-high 14 assists, while Tonna Druhe registered 10 digs, seven assists and two kills. Druhe also led the Lady Warriors with nine service points.

Overall, Granite City's serving was outstanding, and apparently better than it was against Civic Memorial.

"I'm sure it was over 90 percent, and much

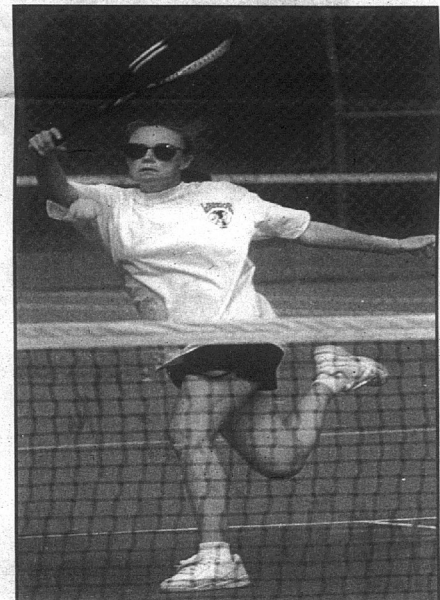

(Staff photo by JOHN FRESSE) Stephanie Brandt makes a play at the net during Thursday's home win over Alton, better than against CM," Layton said. "That match was close, and could have gone either way."

What was also impressive Thursday night was the ongoing turnaround taking place at Alton. Head coach Todd Carter has made huge strides with his team over the past three years.

"We have girls coming out now who want to play volleyball, and are willing to do what it takes to become good players," Carter said. "I told them if they all work hard and play as a team, they'll be successful."

"But these kids don't know how to win yet," (See LADY WARRIORS, Page 39)

Golfers top Roxana, Wood River

By Rob Raphael
Staff writer

The Granite City golf team raised its dual-match record to 5-3 on Thursday by defeating Roxana and Wood River in a triangular meet held at Arlington Golf Course.

The Warriors continue to shoot their best scores at Arlington, while their play on the road is still struggling. On Thursday, the Warriors fired a team score of 163, edging Roxana by a single stroke. Wood River was a distant third at 184.

Although GCHS coach Boone Chaney was happy with the dual win, he's still looking for more from his team.

"Right now, we're plugging along," he said. "We're close to where I'd like us to be right now, but we can still be better. Hopefully everything will come together soon, and our lettermen will start to come to the forefront for us."

Chaney agreed that the Warriors' main problem is consistency. Several golfers have shown the ability to shoot low scores, but the result is to do that every time out.

On Thursday, Chris Carpenter and Matt Foley led the Warriors with 3-over-par 89 on Arlington's front nine.

Pat Logan shot a 42, with Jeff Jordan returning to the scoring table with a 43. It was the Warriors' lowest scoring round of the season.

Other scorers for GCHS included Tim Goskie at 45, Brett Briggs at 45, John Mills at 46 and Ty Suhre at 49.

Roxana was led by twin 99s from Darnell Cox and Mark Oertgen. Wood River's top score was Jeff Teasley's 41.

On Wednesday, at Oak Brook in Edwardsville, the Warriors placed third in a quadrangular meet. The host Tizers easily won the meet with a 156 total. Red Bud was second at 168, and the Warriors were third at 172. Greenville was a distant fourth at 191.

On Oak Brook's par-35 front nine, Suhre was the top scorer with a fine round of 40. Foley was next at 43, with Logan shooting a 44 and Carpenter a 45.

That day, Chaney was a bit disappointed about the way his upperclassmen played the course.

"We didn't get a lot of help from our lettermen," he said. "We're getting one or two good scores, but the others aren't filling in."

Granite City was scheduled to leave Friday for Quincy, where the Warriors were set to participate in one of the toughest tournaments in the state.

The Warriors use the Quincy Tournament more for top-flight experience rather than shoot- (See GOLFERS, Page 38)

GCSC dance

The Granite City Soccer Club's annual Beverage and Chicken Dance will be held 6:30 p.m.-midnight Sept. 21 in the Columbus Room at the KC Hall in Granite City. Music will be provided by the Street Express Band. Tickets are available from GCSC coaches and board members.

The cost of the dance is $15 per person, or $25 per couple. Tickets will also be available at the door. For more information, call the GCSC soccer hotline at 876-9000.

Youth soccer tourney

A youth soccer tournament for recreational soccer league teams will be held Oct. 1-18 at the Charles Melvin Price Support Center in Granite City. The tournament will feature teams of seven or eight players per side, and is open to girls and boys ages 5-13.

The registration deadline is Sept. 18. For more information, or to register, call Ruben Mendoza, CMPSC soccer coordinator, at 452-4521 during the afternoon, or at 452-7395 in the morning or evening hours.

Flag football program

The Granite City Park District is organizing its Flag Football Program. The league will play on Monday nights and Saturday nights at George Sykes Field in Wilson Park.

The league is for boys in grades 3-6. Registration is being taken at the Wilson Park office.

The fees for the program are $22 for district residents and $30 for non-residents. Helmets and shoulder pads are furnished by the Park District. For more information, call the park office at 877-3069.

GCSC teams forming

Open registration is now being held for both boys and girls 5 years of age and older who wish to join the Granite City Soccer Club. The cost to register is $30 per child. For more information, or to register, call 876-9000.

Ladies' senior softball

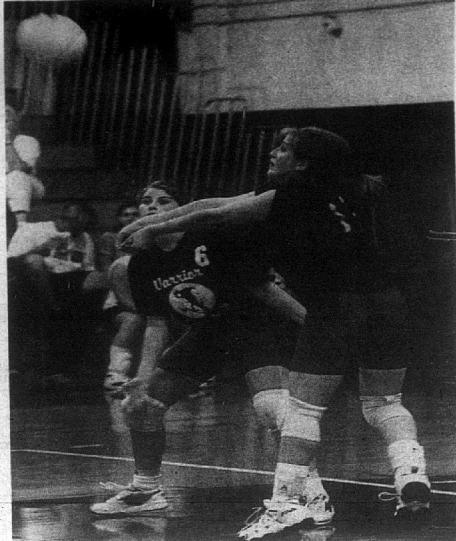

A local women's senior softball team is looking for women age 50 and over who are interested in playing in the Illinois Senior Olympics in September in Springfield. The team is also looking for players interested in playing an exhibition game Oct. 5 as part of the Granite City Centennial Celebration.

Interested players are asked to call Eva Horn at 797-6585 or Betty Arbeiter at 876-9121 as soon as possible.

Youth basketball league

Lewis & Clark Community College in Godfrey is organizing its fall youth basketball league to begin play Sept. 10 and 12. The 1996 league will feature a division for boys in seventh and eighth grades, a division for boys in fifth and sixth grade and a new division for girls in sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

The cost is $250 per team. To register or for more information, call Lewis & Clark basketball coach Doug Stotler at 466-3411, extension 6299.

And that's just take time. What we still lack is the mental toughness. That's what a team like Granite City has. We have to learn how to bear down and win those big points, and put a team away. We played a fine first game tonight, then said, 'We just won a game against Granite City. Now we can relax.' You can never relax.

"It's a compliment to their program, the fact that they've blossomed into a strong program," Layton said. "But technically, we knew we were stronger, and we just had to put it together and take care of ourselves."

Leah Harmon served the winning point for Alton in the first game, but the Redbirds' serving was not as sharp in game two. With Druhe and Tapp serving the bulk of the points, the Lady Warriors ran out to a 5-0 lead in the second game.

In the third game, which was closer than the score indicated, Wright served two consecutive aces to give the Lady Warriors a 6-0 lead. Later, Tapp served GCSC to an 11-3 lead, and two final aces by Druhe sealed the Redbirds' fate.

Plasterer finished his pro career in an independent league in Minnesota.

After the native of Darmstadt, Ill., returned to the Freeburg area, he continued to excel for the team managed by the late Austin Mulkey.

"When I was a kid, Kent was one of the guys that my Dad said I had to watch play," said Rich Hacker, the New Athens native who reached the majors as an infielder and later became a third-base coach for the Cardinals and Toronto.

"Kent was a great ballplayer and a great guy," Lanier said.

My sympathy to Doris Pfisterer's wife of 46 years, and her family.

EXTRA INNINGS: Bergkoetter and Mense each played more than 20 years of County League ball — Tom as a pitcher and Roy as a left fielder, manager and coach. Sauter starred as an Inter-City League catcher before playing professionally with Atlanta, but remains the president of the Sauter M-C entry.

Tickets for the M-C awards dinner are $10 per person. More information can be obtained by contacting any league manager or official.

OZZIE FACT:
1992 - Voted the National League's starting shortstop for the 10th season, the most consecutive starts by any NL player.

Q. To Gary Gatti -
Are you pitched differently in the NL than in the AL?
From: Joshua Kincaid

A. "The National League is traditionally a league where more fastballs are thrown because the ballparks tend to be larger. In the American League, breaking balls are thrown. Therefore, when I first came to this league I had to adjust to seeing more off-speed pitches."

Q. To Tony La Russa - Do you have confidence in your team? Can you make the playoffs?
From: Christopher Neukam

A. "This team has the talent and confidence in themselves to make the playoffs. One of the keys to being a good team is staying mentally strong through the ups and downs. The baseball season is a long season and you have to maintain a steady and strong confidence and I believe the guys on this team want to win as much as I do!"

Cougars net 2-0 start

No one can seriously answer the question of how well the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville men's soccer team will do in its first season in the Great Lakes Valley Conference.

But if last weekend is any indication, the Cougars will be looking for some Division I respect.

And if things stay the same way, it looks like Granite City's Jason Maxfield has found a secure home with SIUE.

The 20 Cougars, ranked ninth in the Central Region preseason poll, are scheduled to face third-ranked Oakland (Mich.) University at 2 p.m. today. Oakland was tabbed third in the region during the preseason.

Last week, SIUE recorded victories over the University of Missouri-Rolla (4-0) and Mercyhurst College (2-1) at Bob Guetler Field.

Mercyhurst was ranked No. 1 in the Central Region and No. 3 in the nation during the preseason. Two goals by Daren Snyder, a junior from Wichita, Kan., sealed the Lakers' fate in that game.

The win over Missouri-Rolla was the result of goals by Jake Ashley, a sophomore from St. Louis, Steve Van Dyke, a senior from Collinsville, Maxfield, a junior transfer from Wright State University, and Mark Maxfield, a sophomore from Belleville (West).

Maxfield has started both games this season and accumulated three shots on goal.

"Jason has fit perfectly into the mix here, and we're thrilled to have him on board," said SIUE coach Ed Huneke. "Jason has added depth to our midfield, and that appears to be a real strength on this team now. It's helped us win our first two contests."

On the women's side, the Cougars also defeated both of their opponents last weekend and are 2-0. The Cougars defeated Missouri-Rolla 4-0 and Mercyhurst 4-3 in overtime.

"I was afraid of both teams," said women's soccer coach Brian Korbmesmer. "The SIUE women's team features two former Granite City players, Stephanie Kuit and Valerie Hasty. Kuit has played every minute of SIUE's first two games, compiling a 1.25 goals-against average."

Miners look to rebound from season-opening loss

Year two of Mark Salisbury's tenure as soccer coach at the University of Missouri at Rolla finds more players on the team — and hopefully for the Miners and Lady Miners, more wins on the field as well.

The Miners opened play last Saturday at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Although both teams dropped their matches, Salisbury was happy with several areas.

"We competed very well, and I'm happy about our intensity and teamwork," he said. "Losing to two great SIUE teams is nothing to get down about."

Salisbury said he's excited about the start of the year, but knows his teams are jumping right into the fire as both will be challenged immediately.

"We did this intentionally to see how they would come together," he said. "We'll get a clearer picture about our teams after these first three games. If we can get through this stretch in good shape, we will be a much better team in the long run."

The Lady Miners have a more experienced team on the field in terms of players in the program, but it is still a squad with only six players as juniors or seniors in eligibility. UMR is looking to bounce back from a 7-11-1 season a year ago after tying the school record for wins in 1994 (12).

"I've been real happy with the way this team has come along," Salisbury said. "The difference is night and day from a year ago."

The top two scorers in team history return to the Lady Miners, juniors Amber Fischer (Ohio) and Natalie Sanders (Kansas). Several other veterans return, including Tami Bowman (St. Louis), Carrie Eyerkruss (Florisant) and Jen Spalingard of Granite City, who has been named as a co-captain.

Other members of the team include Michelle Phillips (Collinsville), Lori Douglas (Vicksburg, Miss.) and Zachlyn Thompson (Lee's Summit, Mo.). Newcomers include Katie Marcum of Anchorage, Alaska, and Kelly Thomas of Granite City.

Warriors

to a 7-0 lead on Holmes' first score. Quarterback Austin Miller faked the reverse and handed off to Holmes, who scooted around the left side of the Warriors' first score in the second quarter, the Panthers were penalized for holding on a broken extra-point attempt. Undaunted, Miller threw a screen to Holmes, who raced 31 yards for the long 2-point conversion.

"I thought our kids came ready to play, and (O'Fallon) is a very fine ballclub," Petrillo said. "I think the folks are going to enjoy that Cahokia-O'Fallon game."

"When we had those two drives early in the first quarter and couldn't score, that really hurt us. But the kids played commendably, we just had a couple of breakdowns. We kind of thought we should have gone into halftime maybe down 15-14, or maybe 0-0."

Ramsey scored on runs of 38 and 3 yards, and also set up his team's fourth touchdown with a 38-yard kickoff return at the start of the second half. He finished with 157 yards on 13 carries.

"(Ramsey) has the speed and the determination, so he's going to be a good one," Bridell said. "He's working hard."

"We saw two really fine teams in the first two weeks, and we meet a good Collinsville team next week," Petrillo said. "We're just hoping to strap it on and get ready to play them. Now it's the conference, and we have to be focused on that."

The Warriors will travel to play the Kahoks in the Southwestern Conference opener for both teams Friday.

The Panthers will finally get the chance to play a home game next week, as they host St. Louis University High.

HOW TO...

PLACE AN AD
There are four easy ways to place your ad:
• BRING IT: 1815 Delmar Ave., Granite City, IL 62040.
• PHONE IT: Call 877-7700 or dial 876-5000.
• FAX IT: Send your ad directly to our Classified Fax Center at 618-876-2240. We'll call you back for confirmation.
• MAIL IT: Send your ad to: Classified, Granite City Press Record Journal, 1815 Delmar, Granite City, IL 62040.

PAY FOR AN AD
You will be billed immediately following last run day. You may pay in person, through the mail, or over the phone or fax. We accept cash, checks and credit cards (MC, Visa, Discover). When paying over the phone, please have your credit card ready. When faxing your ad, just include your credit card number. We'll call you back for confirmation. Please do not send cash through the mail. Some ads require prepayment.

WRITE AN AD
Capture the reader's attention with larger headlines, bold type, and symbols. Tell them up front what you're selling or seeking. Describe what is unique about your item, adding details such as color and condition. Avoid abbreviations; they make your ad harder to read and therefore less effective. Include your phone number and the hours you are available. Always include the price. It will increase your responses.

CANCEL AN AD
Deadlines for cancellation are identical to deadlines for ad placement. You may cancel an ad in person or over the phone, or cancel an ad, phone 877-7700.
